SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 18, 2021

When Jesus saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them,

for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

Prayer Before Mass

Accept, O most Holy Trinity, this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass enacted once by the Divine Word, which is now renewed on this altar through the hands of your priest.

We unite ourselves to the intentions of Jesus Christ, Priest and Victim, that we may be consumed for Your glory and for the salvation of all people.

We intend through Jesus Christ, with Jesus Christ, in Jesus Christ, to adore Your eternal Majesty, to thank Your immense goodness, to satisfy Your offended justice, and to beg for Your mercy for the Church, for our dear ones, and for ourselves here present. Amen.

Introductory Rites

Entrance

Gathering Song:

Like A Shepherd (BB#606)

Like a shepherd
He feeds his flock
and gathers the lambs in His arms, holding them carefully
close to his heart, leading them home.

I myself will shepherd them,
for others have led them astray.
The lost I will rescue and heal their wounds
and pasture them, giving them rest.

Greeting

Penitential Act

Priest: (Brethren) Brothers and Sisters, let us acknowledge our sins and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

You were sent to heal the contrite of heart,
Lord have mercy, (Lord have mercy)

You came to call sinners,
Christ have mercy, (Christ have mercy)

You are seated at the right hand of the Father to intercede for us:
Lord have mercy, (Lord have mercy)

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise You, we bless You, we adore You, we glorify You, we give You thanks, for Your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy, have mercy on us.

For You alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect (Opening Prayer)

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Jer 23:1-6 (BBpg189)

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD. Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds. I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply. I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD.

Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security.

This is the name they give him:
"The LORD our justice."

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: PS 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6

[R]. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul. [R].

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage. [R].

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows. [R].

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come. [R].

Second Reading: Eph 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters:
In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it. He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.

All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel Reading: Mk 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things..

The Gospel of the Lord Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ

HomilyProfession of Faith*The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, True God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our Salvation, He came down from heaven,

(Bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the Resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Universal Prayer: (Prayer of the Faithful)Prayer to Saint Joseph During the Coronavirus Pandemic

O Saint Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin
Mary and Foster Father of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, we turn to you in our time of need knowing fully that you are a source of consolation, comfort and solace.

Comforter of the Afflicted and Hope of the Sick, help those throughout the world who have coronavirus; bring them strength, perseverance and healing.

Patron of the Dying, deliver the souls of those who are dying of the coronavirus into the merciful arms of your Son, Jesus Christ.

Joseph Most Courageous, help those on the front lines of this pandemic with health of mind and body and assist them with their challenges and strife.

And finally, in times of fear and anxiety, take us under your loving protection and aid us from on high. Amen

Liturgy of the EucharistPreparation Song:
Shepherd Me O God (BB#458)

Shepherd me, O God, beyond my wants,
beyond my fears,
from death into life.

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want,
I rest in the meadows

of faithfulness and love,
I walk by the quiet waters of peace.

2. Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul, you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth, my spirit shall sing
the music of your Name.

Text: Based on Psalm 23. Text and music © 1986, 1987, GIA Publications, Inc. All rights reserved. Used with permission.

Preparation of Gifts:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all His Holy Church.

Dialogue/Preface:

The Lord be with you,

And with your spirit

Lift up your hearts,

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God

It is right and just

The Acclamation: Sanctus/Holy

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts, Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation/Mystery of Faith:

We proclaim Your Death O, Lord, and profess Your Resurrection, until You come again.

Amen, Lord's Prayer, Sign of PeaceLamb of God:

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, Grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion:

Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Communion:Gift of Finest Wheat (BB#320)

You satisfy the hungry heart

With gift of finest wheat,

Come give to us, O saving Lord,

The Bread of Life to eat.

1. As when the shepherd calls his sheep,
They know and heed his voice;
So when you call your family, Lord,
We follow and rejoice.

2. With joyful lips we sing to you
Our praise and gratitude,
That you should count us worthy, Lord,
To share this heavenly food.

3. Is not the cup we bless and share
The Blood of Christ outpoured?
Do not one cup, one loaf, declare
Our oneness in the Lord?

4. The mystery of your presence, Lord,
No mortal tongue can tell:
Whom all the world cannot contain Comes in our hearts to dwell.

5. You give yourself to us, O Lord;
Then selfless let us be,
To serve each other in your name
In truth and charity

Text 1725–1807; vs. 5, anon. Fr. A Collection of Sacred Ballads, 1790. Music: Columbian Harmony, 1829.

Sending Forth:Here I Am Lord (BB#383)

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save.

I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Here I am, Lord.

Is it I, Lord?

I have heard you calling in the night.

I will go, Lord,

if you lead me.

I will hold your people in my heart.

Update on COVID Precaution

Effective immediately, wearing masks are optional but recommended for the unvaccinated. For those who wish to sit near those with masks, there are reserved pews. We continue to encourage hand sanitation and physical distancing. Maintain distancing during communion by utilizing the white dots on communion aisles as you walk to receive.

Please place your offering in the blue baskets in the aisles before Mass. St. Paul staff will continue to wipe down pews between every Mass and change holy water fonts. Please note, due to the unpredictability of this global COVID pandemic, the Pastor reserves the right to modify at any time.

COMPASSIONATE REST
REV. ISHAYA SAMAILA, PAROCHIAL VICAR

Come to me, all of you who labor and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light (Matthew 11:28-30).

The disciples of Jesus worked so hard, in changing the story line of the people they served. Many beneficiaries regained their freedom from demonic possessions and other illnesses caused by the devil and his agents. The invitation to be in a quiet place was, for the disciples to be rejuvenated and to evaluate the great events they witnessed in their ministry. Jesus and his disciples desired to be in a quiet atmosphere, but the immediate community members needed them more than they could imagine. Urgent matters at hand abruptly suspended the vacation the disciples of Jesus should have had.

Corporal works of mercy (feeding the hungry, giving water to the thirsty, visiting the sick, visiting those in prison, clothing the naked, burying the dead, and accommodating the homeless) require that we put ourselves in the positions of serving the needs of others, even if it means condoning inconveniences. The essence of life is not about oneself, rather, it is about how others are impacted positively. Jesus Christ remains a model to humanity, he left his comfort zone, in order to live and teach emulative life in this world. The needy are always with us from one generation to another, seeking succor as in the days of Jesus Christ; we need to configure ourselves into another Christ for our generation. The need to alleviate the suffering of others around us should be a collective responsibility. Whatever a neighbor needs should be given all round attention and whatsoever is required in order to uphold human dignity. Therefore, to be relevant to people in need should draw the attention of everybody, from all walks of life.

The roots of the gospel portray Jesus as a physician, a teacher, welfare agent, a steward, and a chief mourner to the people that encountered him. The ministry of Jesus was selfless to the extent his apostles could not have time for themselves. Jesus taught and gave instructions, however, he practiced a pattern of life that appeared ideal in the eyes of the world. The need to attend to the crowd that came to him was beyond their state of mind and disposition; notwithstanding, he (Jesus) by passes human standards in order to avail his audience divine experience. The crowd (disciples) that went looking for Jesus at such a crucial moment, challenges us into being alert to looking for help whenever situations get out of control. To have an encounter with Jesus Christ is the desire of every disciple, so as to be transformed. But, turning the crowd away unattended might have been disastrous and further contradicts what Jesus represents. They were victims of depression, injustice, marginalization, harassment, loneliness, and suppression which were facilitated by a culture of alienated leaders. This generation like other generations, need Jesus to make a difference in the life of individuals and communities.

WELCOME TO THE ST. PAUL'S FAMILY FORMATION CORNER
OUR FAMILY FORMATION NEWSLETTER

Hi, I'm Saint Kateri

I am the first Native American woman to be declared a saint. I was introduced to Jesus by missionaries. During my life my face was scarred and I was almost blinded by smallpox. My name means, "she who bumps into things!" Instead of getting married, I dedicated my entire life to Jesus. When I died, my scarred face was miraculously made beautiful again – just like baptism makes our souls beautiful.
