Prayer Before Mass

Accept, O most Holy Trinity, this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass enacted once by the Divine Word, which is now renewed on this altar through the hands of Your priest.

We unite ourselves to the intentions of Jesus Christ, Priest and Victim, that we may be consumed for Your glory and for the salvation of all people.

We intend through Jesus Christ, with Jesus Christ, in Jesus Christ, to adore Your eternal Majesty, to thank Your immense goodness, to satisfy Your offended justice, and to beg for Your mercy for the Church, for our dear ones, and for ourselves here present. Amen.

Penitential Act

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise You, we bless You, we adore You, we glorify You, we give You thanks, for Your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father:
have mercy, (have mercy) on us.

For You alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect (Opening Prayer)

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Jer 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped;
You were too strong for me, and You triumphed.
All the day I am an object of laughter;
everyone mocks me.

Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message;
the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day.

I say to myself, I will not mention Him,
I will speak in His name no more.
But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones;
I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

Ps 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

[R]. My soul is thirsting for You, O Lord my God.

O God, You are my God whom I seek;
for You my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water. [R].

Thus have I gazed toward You in the sanctuary to see Your power and Your glory, for Your kindness is a greater good than life;
my lips shall glorify You. [R].

Thus will I bless You while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon Your name.
As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied, and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise You! [R].

You are my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me. [R].

Second Reading: Rom 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God,
to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God,
your spiritual worship.
Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel: Matt 16:13-20

Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders,
the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised.
Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke Him,
"God forbid, Lord!
No such thing shall ever happen to you."
He turned and said to Peter,
"Get behind me, Satan!
You are an obstacle to me.
You are thinking not as God does,
but as human beings do."

Then Jesus said to His disciples,
"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?
Or what can one give in exchange for his life?
For the Son of Man will come with His angels in His Father's glory, and then He will repay all according to his conduct."

The Gospel of the Lord Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ

HomilyUniversal Prayer:

(Prayer of the Faithful)

Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Heavenly Father,
we thank you for the gift of your Son,
Our Lord Jesus Christ, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age.

Reawaken our wonder at His presence in the Most Holy Eucharist. May our hearts burn within us as He opens the Scriptures and breaks the bread.

Give us the eyes of faith to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the face of the poor and the suffering.

Nourished by the Eucharist, send us forth to walk faithfully as missionary disciples, proclaiming the Gospel to every heart and extending Your kingdom to every land.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Preparation Song

Preparation of Gifts:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at Your hands for the praise and glory of His name, for our good and the good of all His Holy Church.

The Acclamation: Sanctus/Holy

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation:

We proclaim Your Death O, Lord, and profess Your Resurrection, until You come again.

Amen, Lord's Prayer, Sign of Peace

Lamb of God:

Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, You take away the sins of the world, Grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion:

Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Communion Song

Sending Forth Song

Saint Michael The Archangel Prayer

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humble pray.
And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruins of souls. Amen.

The Word of God, Catechesis in Three Parts

Sacred Scriptures

"When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God Himself speaks to His people, and Christ, present in His word, proclaims the Gospel" (GIRM, no. 29). These words from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) set before us a profound truth that we need to ponder and make our own. The words of Sacred Scripture are unlike any other texts we will ever hear, for they not only give us information, but they are also the vehicle God uses to reveal Himself to us, how we come to know the depth of God's love for us, and the responsibilities entailed by being Christ's followers, members of His Body. What is more, this Word of God proclaimed in the liturgy possesses a special sacramental power to bring about in us what it proclaims. The Word of God proclaimed at Mass is 'efficacious' that is, it not only tells us of God and God's will for us, it also helps us to put that will of God into practice in our own lives. How, then, do we respond to this wonderful gift of God's Word? We respond in word and song, in posture and gesture, in silent meditation and, most important of all, by listening attentively to that Word as it is proclaimed. Following each reading we express our gratitude for this gift with the words "Thanks be to God" or, in the case of the Gospel, "Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ," and it is appropriate that a brief period of silence be observed to allow for personal reflection. Following the first reading we sing the Responsorial Psalm, a meditation on God's word through the inspired words of one of the psalms from the psalter, the Bible's prayer book. Please, keep connected by reading next week part two. May God's Word enrich you.

September Family of the Month

The Domestic Church is families, living and practicing their Faith. The Knights of Columbus Family of the Month program supports the Domestic Church highlighting the outstanding families at St. Paul. For September, the Knights of Columbus selected the Collins family as Family of the Month.

Jill Collins, the head of household has been a member of St. Paul for 35 years. She has two children Daesung, 12, and Jaegeun, 8. Jill works for and volunteers for St. Vincent de Paul. Jill is a grant writer helping St. Vincent de Paul raise the monies needed for their ambitious services.

Daesung and Jaegeun participate with Jill in the Faith Formation program. Registration is underway for the program. See the bulletin for details. The boys attend Great Hearts in the 7th grade and 3rd grade respectively. They had been in the scouting program at St. Paul's and now participate in the Boys Team Charity performing various civic and volunteer activities

The family attends Mass together, sometimes joined by their grandparents Butch and Gerri Cook. Of note is their daily prayer exercise. In the evening, each family member states something during the day for which they are grateful, followed by prayer.

If you know a family that should be recognized, please contact Phillip Tabbita, PTabbita@att.net, 202 245-9642.

Eucharistic Miracle WYD 2023

It is true, most of these writings I gather about the Eucharist are from several books and readings of the lives of the Saints. Unfortunately, not everyone connects with historical miracles as much as current. So, today's article is about a Eucharistic miracle that occurred just few weeks ago.

As many followed, Pope Francis celebrated Mass for the World Youth Day, held in Lisbon Portugal in early August. One of our young adult parishioners (Go Emma!) went to Portugal so we are blessed to have a representative from St. Paul! It was the first event after the COVID pandemic, and the theme was "Mary arose and went with hast."

God was moving among those in attendance. One blind teenager says she was miraculously healed during her pilgrimage to the event. Jimena, 16-year-old pilgrim to World Youth Day from Madrid, told Catholic News Agency she was miraculously healed following reception of Holy Communion during the Mass at World Youth Day. Jimena told CNA, "I opened my eyes, and I could see perfectly." According to reports, Jimena suffered with blindness for almost three years before the miracle due to myopia. Often referred to as "nearsighted", the condition was severe enough for Jimena that it left her 95 percent blind. The teenager credits the Blessed Mother for her restored sight.

Jimena was traveling to World Youth Day with a group from Opus Dei and was accompanied by the prayers and novenas from her friends and loved ones. Prior to leaving for her pilgrimage, she organized a novena to Our Lady of the Snows. She said it was on the feast day of Our Lady of Snows, August 5, that her sight was restored. She said she woke up on August 5 with her vision still the same as it had been for 2.5 years. She was unable to see and was getting emotional because she felt she was not going to be healed. It was, however, after receiving the Lord in the Eucharist that she said that her prayers were answered, and her sight was restored.

"We were at WYD and after receiving Communion I began to cry a lot, because it was the last day of the novena and I wanted to be cured and I had very much asked God please [cure me]," she told CNA. "It was overwhelming; very many thanks must be given for the miracle, because I saw the altar, the tabernacle, my girlfriends were there, and I could see them perfectly."

Of course, Jimena is in the process of having the Church validate miracle by doctors, but Cardinal Omella and others say it is considered a miracle for now. As there were media reports that focused on negative World Youth Day reports, such as smaller crowd than St. John Paul II, or Pope Francis' statements, but how can we allow this to overshadow this miracle. Her miracle came after the reception of the Holy Eucharist, during the year of Eucharistic Revival! And was credited from praying the Novena to our Blessed Mother. What else can convince Catholics that Jesus is present in the Holy Eucharist? Don't get distracted, like Jimena, focus on our faithful love of Mary and the Holy Eucharist. The Evil one enjoys such distractions. Let us stay away from news that separates, rather look to our Lord who unites us.

What prayers are in your heart when you are receiving the Holy Eucharist? How can we remain 'child-like' like Jimena, totally trusting in our Blessed Virgin Mother prayers and never giving up on asking for our miracle. There are so many miracles, what is yours? Do you lay your request before Him in the Holy Eucharist? Our Lady of Snows, Pray for Us!

WELCOME TO THE ST. PAUL'S FAMILY FORMATION CORNER NEWSLETTER

Dear Families!

Religious Education registration is ongoing. Our program is starting on 1 October 2023. Arrival time is 10:15 in O'Carroll Hall, then the class starts at 10:30. We meet every 1st Sunday of the month, and for the Sacraments every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month.

For more information, contact 602-942-2608 Ext. 122 or email srrose@stpaulsphoenix.org.

Our Vision: "Transform The World one Family at a Time."

Dear families of 4-6th graders,

Ascend is the beginning of our plan to bring youth ministry back into our parish. Ascend is geared specifically for our 4th-6th graders. This program will keep our children energized and be instrumental for transitioning to future youth group activities. Our ASCEND program will provide a space for our 4th-6th graders to find solid Catholic friendships, discover their talents, and learn more about God in their lives. Ascend will be fun, dynamic, energetic, and community building. Each month we will have opportunities for serving others in our community and beyond. Spiritual growth, deepening our faith, fun games and meeting new friends. Each session will consist of an ice breaker and or game, short talk (5-10 minutes), small groups (time to unpack what we learned from the talk through questions and discussions), or an activity related to the topic, and closing prayer. Ascend will meet at the same time as family faith formation and RE, your student will be able to continue their spiritual growth while your other students are in class to receive their sacraments. God has a lot up His sleeves this year, I really hope you join us as we grow this program and the future of youth programs here at Saint Paul's. Sign up sheets are in the back of the church. For more information contact Addison Amato at 602-942-2608 Ext. 128 or email youth@stpaulsphoenix.org.

THANK YOU for all your items from your vacation/business trip this past year. We were able to distribute over 200 bags...They were given to women's and men's shelters throughout the valley, and to the Mats for the Homeless, plus other places in need. You can put the items in the Brown Box in the vestibule and I retrieve on Sundays. Please do not put in any food items, the soap smell gets into them, thank you.

Much thanks and Blessings to all for your gifts of sharing with others. — Irene and Patty

This Sunday's Second Collection is for Debt Reduction.

Nicole Mullen is known as an undeniably talented artist who is unafraid to be vulnerable and transparent with her audience.

Nicole continues a legacy of sincerity and artistic integrity that has been recognized with two Grammy® Award nominations and nine Gospel Music Association Dove Awards, including two Female Vocalist of the Year honors, Song of the Year for "Redeemer" & "On My Knees," and the Urban Album of the Year for "Everyday People."
